Recruited and/or appointed today as (for e.g.), Secretary-General of the Global Economic Cooperation Council for Africa, GECCA

I pledge allegiance to the Global Economic Cooperation Council for Africa, to African Continent, to the Central Coast Republic's Peoples, and to all the peoples and nations of the earth to which the Global Economic Cooperation Council is dedicated.

I pledge allegiance to the founding, governing and ethical structures of the Global Economic Cooperation Council for Africa, and I promise that I will dedicate my full potential to ensure GECCA's Mandate works properly, as a supreme and common drive for Africa, for our people and for all the peoples and nations of the global Afrocentric world.

Throughout my career as Secretary-General, from my workplace to my community and across global spheres else, I pledge to live, walk, act and behave with possible dignity, as faithful, respectful ambassador and honorable representative of the Global Economic Cooperation Council for Africa; committed to substantially contributing in propelling GECCA principles, values, and civilizations to the center of the most prominent and world influential change.

As inherent member of the universal community of the human people of the earth, I understand that the world is one, that Africa is an integral, inalienable and indispensable part of that world, and that all human beings are my brothers and sisters, Africans as well. I understand that humanism has neither boundaries nor political parties, that its only one doctrine is progress, well-being and happiness for all the peoples of the earth, and that its glory can only emerge through an imperative global conscience and powerful cooperation that put peace, unity and multipolar prosperity first. In order to confirm and translate these powerful ideals into truths and deeds, regardless of their races, backgrounds and beliefs, I do solemnly promise that I will look upon and treat everyone with love, justice, fairness and consideration, and that I will deploy all my power, my conscience, and my deliberate support to GECCA, for the rise and prominence of One Africa, One World, One Economy, and One Multipolar Prosperity, a global Afrocentric world conceived and pledged on vibrant, pioneering, humanistic, plenipotential, transformative and impactful cooperation, as well as on a new era of collective reconstruction of peace civilizations, common prosperity, and endless and borderless progress.

From now on and from this day forward, I pledge loyalty to Africa, to all GECCA Members and to all member peoples and nations of the universal community of the human people of the earth. I solemnly pledge, that I will never attempt to get involved in any project for harmful or conspiratorial purposes against humanity. I deeply understand that violence, economic marginalization, extractivism, as well as political aggression and military dominion are strictly prohibited in across GECCA Civilizations; and I hereby resolve, to dedicate all my power and potential to passionately supporting GECCA in building global Afrocentric economies free from any form of contrasts, violence, exploitation, and wars. In view of the foregoing, I determinedly pledge to myself and to all the people and nations of the earth, that I will never interfere in the GECCA Member Communities' domestic affairs, that I will honor and respect the right to sovereign equality for all, and that I will consolidate with all energy, devotion and determination, all initiatives of great community, national, continental and global importance, such as maintaining my support for healthy struggles aimed at rooting out poverty, violence, conflicts and wars, and promptly furthering comprehensive transformation from the community and domestic levels to the regional and global spheres.

Throughout my term as Secretary-General, I highly resolve and freely promise to GECCA, that I will demonstrate a culminating level of diligent and successful servant, and that I will endorse GECCA in letter and spirit towards culminant completion of One Africa, One World, One Economy, and One Multipolar Prosperity.

For which motives and resolutions, I hereby declare, that I absolutely, consciously, and freely undertake this pledge today, without mental reservation or purpose of deliberation, in witness whereof, I hereafter affix my signature, to signify my own free devoted willpower for Africa and global Afrocentric communities.
